This half year financial report does not include all the notes of the type normally included in an annual financial report. Accordingly, this report is to be read in conjunction with the annual report for the year ended 30 June 2012 and any public announcements made by NSX Limited ("the Company") during the half year reporting period in accordance with the continuous disclosure requirements of the Listing Rules of the Australian Securities Exchange ("ASX") and of the Corporations Act 2001.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Dear Shareholders,

During 2012 the management has continued to streamline our operations and develop the technology platform to improve broker access, in particular make it feasible for online brokers to obtain access. In addition, the company has sought to provide better and easier viability to the market for investors with new websites launched for both Exchanges in December.

Market conditions remain difficult with limited corporate activity and new listings. Whilst our pipeline is looking better, we must continue to focus on making sure that companies seeking to access our market can do so efficiently and in a timely manner. With market conditions generally improving, more companies will be prepared to venture out to the capital markets and our exchanges, the National Stock Exchange of Australia and SIM Venture Securities Exchange, have experienced an uptick in interest from both brokers and companies.

Changes to the regulatory environment are also impacting on our management and Board time as our regulator seeks to fine tune its interaction with the markets at a time of changing competitive environment. One of the key impacts this will have on the NSX is requiring it improve our capital position and so that we maintain sufficient working capital to ensure that we are able to maintain fair, efficient and transparent exchanges.

In addition the company will need additional working capital during the year to fund ongoing operations.

As a consequence of these competing capital requirements, the Board has resolved to raise additional capital and will advise shareholders and the market in general as soon as these plans have been finalised.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER'S REPORT

2012 has been a busy year for all of us at NSX, making changes that will put us in good stead for 2013 and beyond. With only a small team there are limits on the speed that developments can be implemented, however we are able to make decisions far quicker than larger organisations.

In 2012 we updated the face of NSX, namely via changes in our logo, website look and tone, marketing material, and key values that we uniquely bring to the Australian listing space.

We also introduced a FIX interface to our platform so we could connect online brokers and connected Paritech, one of Australia's two main online software suppliers, to foster online access. Bringing online brokers to NSX has proved more difficult than I expected but perseverance has paid off. A new online broker called OpenMarkets is due to launch on NSX and SIM VSE very soon, offering online access to all Australian equity listing markets for the first time. They will bring sorely needed competition to the online broking space and we look forward to working closly with them, introducing our listed companies and offering their shareholders the type of access to NSX they've been craving.

We have also completely reviewed every part of our charging structure to make sure that our offering is exactly what our customers are looking for. With this in mind we've changed our trading fees, listing fees, annual fees, adviser fees, broker fees and many others. I believe they are now set at levels and styles that will further promote NSX business.

We have removed the requirement for sponsoring brokers to be involved in IPOs, reducing the cost and complexity of listing further for companies. We have also introduced a formal fast track switching service, so that disgruntled companies listed on another Australian market can easily and cost effectively move to the NSX. We will be marketing this service more during the year as online comes on-stream and trade volumes begin to accelerate.

The result of all these changes has been to build a solid foundation that leverages off NSX's existing strengths of pro-listing rules, friendly and helpful service along with effective listing and secondary trading services, and adds on the key components that were missing, namely brand messaging and online access.

2013 therefore becomes the year when we start showing Australia the new look NSX. Feedback already has been overwhelmingly positive and our pipeline of listings, broker and adviser additions, is stronger than any time in our history. I look forward to seeing the fruits of our hard labour and announcing these results to you over the coming quarters.

It also includes any other compliance related expenses not classified elsewhere in the accounts. This expense decreased by 46.6% pcp due to decreased listing activities during the period on both Exchanges. This expense category tends to increase or decrease depending on the amount of listing applications by issuers, applications for participant broker status and surveillance activity.

This expense increased by 1.9% pcp during the year due to increased fees from ASX for participation in the ASX Settlement Facilitation Service and costs associated with the redesign of the NSXA website.

Marketing and promotion includes any costs associated with external promotion of the exchanges such as sales activities at exhibitor conferences. Expenditure has decreased by 69.3% pcp more reliance on electronic marketing material rather than hardcopy.

Occupancy expense includes any expense related to the three offices maintained by NSX in Sydney, Melbourne and Newcastle during the year. This expense has decreased by 0.8% pcp due savings in some operating costs of the occupied areas.

Administration expenses have decreased by 23.5% pcp due to identified costs savings specifically in travel.

Note 1 Statement of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Preparation

These general purpose financial statements for the interim half-year reporting period ended 31 December 2012 have been prepared in accordance with requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and Australian Accounting Standards including AASB 134: Interim Financial Reporting. Compliance with Australian Accounting Standards ensures that the financial statements and notes also comply with International Financial Reporting Standards.

This interim financial report is intended to provide users with an update on the latest annual financial statements of NSX Limited and its controlled entities (the Group). As such, it does not contain information that represents relatively insignificant changes occurring during the half-year within the Group. It is therefore recommended that this financial report be read in conjunction with the annual financial statements of the Group for the year ended 30 June 2012, together with any public announcements made during the half-year.

The same accounting policies and methods of computation have been followed in this interim financial report as were applied in the most recent annual financial statements except for the adoption of the following new and revised Accounting Standards.

Reporting Basis and Conventions

The half-year report has been prepared on an accruals basis and is based on historical costs modified by the revaluation of selected non-current assets, financial assets and financial liabilities for which the fair value basis of accounting has been applied.

New standards, interpretations and amendments adopted by the Group

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are consistent with those followed in the preparation of the Group's annual financial statements for the period ended 30 June 2012. However, the following amendments to accounting standards as a result of the annual Improvements to AASB come into effect during the period. The listed amendments did not have any impact on the accounting policies, financial position or performance of the Group:

AASB 124 Related Party Transactions (Amendment)

The AASB has issued an amendment to AASB 124 that clarifies the definitions of a related party. The new definitions emphasise a symmetrical view of related party relationships as well as clarifying in which circumstances persons and key management personnel affect related party relationships of an entity. Secondly, the amendment introduces an exemption from the general related party disclosure requirements for transactions with a government and entities that are controlled, jointly controlled or significantly influenced by the same government as the reporting entity. The adoption of the amendment did not have any impact on the financial position or performance of the Group.

AASB 132 Financial Instruments: Presentation (Amendment)

ABN: 33 089 447 058

The amendment alters the definition of a financial liability in AASB 132 to enable entities to classify rights issues and certain options or warrants as equity instruments. The amendment is applicable if the rights are given pro rata to all of the existing owners of the same class of an entity's non-derivative equity instruments, to acquire a fixed number of the entity's own equity instruments for a fixed amount in any currency. The amendment has had no effect on the financial position or performance of the Group.

AASB Interpretation 14: Prepayments of a Minimum Funding Requirement (Amendment)

The amendment removes an unintended consequence when an entity is subject to minimum funding requirements (MFR) and makes an early payment of contributions to cover such requirements. The amendment permits a prepayment of future service cost by the entity to be recognised as pension asset. The Group is not subject to minimum funding requirements in Australia. The amendment to the interpretation therefore had no effect on the financial position or performance of the Group.

Improvements to AASB (issued May 2010)

In May 2010, the AASB issued its third omnibus of amendments to its standards, primarily with a view to removing inconsistencies and clarifying wording. There are separate transitional provisions for each standard. The adoption of the following amendments resulted in changes to accounting policies, but did not have any impact on the financial position or performance of the Group.

AASB 2011-9 'Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards- Presentation of Items of Other Comprehensive Income'

Note 4 Reliance on Australian Securities Exchange Limited and NASDAQ OMX

The ability of the National Stock Exchange of Australia Limited and SIM Venture Securities Exchange Limited to conduct their operations is reliant upon the capability and reliability of the ASX Settlement CHESS settlement systems which are used by the Economic Entity.

The ability of the National Stock Exchange of Australia Limited and SIM Venture Securities Exchange Limited to conduct operations is heavily reliant upon the capability and reliability of the trading systems which are licensed to the Economic Entity by the NASDAQ OMX.

A significant and sustained failure of those systems would have a materially detrimental effect on the economic entity's short term results, which in turn could undermine the longer term confidence in the Economic Entity.

Accounting Policies and Inter-segment Transactions

Accounting policies adopted

Unless stated otherwise, all amounts reported to the Board of Directors as the chief operating decision maker with respect to operating segments are determined in accordance with accounting policies that are consistent to those adopted in the annual financial statements of the Group.

Inter-segment transactions

Inter-segment loans payable and receivable are initially recognised at the consideration received net of transaction costs. Interest is not charged on such loans.

Inter-segment sales and purchases are made on the basis of the Group's internal transfer pricing policies. No allocation of corporate charges is made to the operating segments, as these are predominately incurred by the Head Office and are not allocated in the internal management reports.

Segment Assets and Liabilities

Where an asset is used across multiple segments, the asset is allocated to the segment that receives the majority of economic value from the asset. In the majority of instances, segment assets are clearly identifiable on the basis of their nature and physical location.

Liabilities are allocated to segments where there is direct nexus between the incurrence of the liability and the operations of the segment. Borrowings and tax liabilities are generally considered to relate to the Group as a whole and are not allocated. Segment liabilities include trade and other payables.

Geographical Segments

The Group conducts all of its business from Australia, therefore no reporting of results by geographical segment is performed.

Note 7 Contingent Liabilities (Cont'd)

ASX Settlement Performance Bond

National Stock Exchange of Australia acts as a settlement agent on behalf of several NSX and SIMVSE broker participants. Consequently NSX is registered with ASX Settlement as a General Participant for the purpose of ASX Settlement Operating Rules to effect CHESS settlements. ASX Settlement Operating Rule 4.9.1 requires General Participants to post a Settlement Performance Bond to the value of $500,000. ASX Settlement can make a demand under Operating Rule 4.9.5 if ASX Settlement is satisfied that a Participant has contravened a provision of the rules and as a result of that contravention, ASX settlement has suffered or incurred any losses, damages, costs or expenses.

NSX has established a bank guarantee backed by a term deposit of $500,000 to satisfy the requirements of the Settlement Performance Bond.

Note 8 Events After the Balance Date

Capital Raising

NSX operates two market licences which enables it to operate stock exchange facilities. In order to continue to pursue the development of the business and to set aside working capital as a part of increased regulatory and working capital requirements to maintain the licences NSX expects to raise additional capital. NSX will send documents to shareholders for a rights issue in the near future. The rights issue will seek to raise over $4million. Details of the rights issue and any additional capital raising by the group will be forwarded to shareholders and released to the market as soon as finalised by the NSX Board.

Other Matters

Other than the matters mentioned above there are no other matters or circumstances have arisen since the end of the financial period which significantly affected or may significantly affect the operations of the Economic Entity, the results of those operations or the state of affairs of the Economic Entity in future financial years.

Note 9 Going Concern

These financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which contemplates the realisation of assets and the payment of liabilities in the ordinary course of business. Should the company be unable to continue as a going concern, it may be unable to realise the carrying value of its assets and to meet its liabilities as they become due.

The company has incurred losses of $972,789 for the half year ended 31 December 2012. In addition to this the company's current cash burn rate indicates that the company may not have sufficient working capital to meet its operational obligations for the coming 12 months.

The Directors have noted that the ongoing ability of the Company to remain a going concern is dependent upon an increase in the level of working capital within the Company. The Directors are investigating the following strategies in an attempt to increase the level of working capital:

- Making a rights issue to raise approximately $4million in cash prior to the end of March 2013;
- Continuing to leverage the remaining contribution due from FEX for the SIM VSE Joint venture:
- Other share placement's to private investors; and/or
- Instigation of the Company's wind-down procedures, which would see the cash deposits held in trust being realised and all liabilities extinguished.

The accounts have been prepared on a going concern basis which contemplates the realisation of assets and the payment of liabilities in the ordinary course of business. The Directors have adopted this basis of preparation having regard for their assessment, which is based on information available as at the date of this report. Should the above strategies be unsuccessful, there is significant uncertainty whether the Company will be able to continue as a going concern.

INDEPENDENT REVIEW REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF NSX LIMITED

Report on the Half Year Financial Report

We have reviewed the accompanying half-year financial report of NSX Limited (the consolidated entity) which comprises the statement of financial position as at 31 December 2012, and the statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and cash flow statement for the half-year ended on that date, a statement of accounting policies, other selected explanatory notes and the directors' declaration.

Directors' Responsibility for the Half-Year Financial Report

The directors of the consolidated entity are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the half-year financial report in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards (including the Australian Accounting Interpretations) and the Corporations Act 2001 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation and fair presentation of the half-year financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the half-year financial report based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Auditing Standard on Review Engagements ASRE 2410 Review of a Financial Report Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity, in order to state whether, on the basis of the procedures described, anything has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the financial report is not presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 including: giving a true and fair view of the consolidated entity's financial position as at 31 December 2012 and its performance for the half-year ended on that date; and complying with Accounting Standard AASB 134: Interim Financial Reporting and the Corporations Regulations 2001. As the auditor of NSX Limited, ASRE 2410 requires that we comply with the ethical requirements relevant to the audit of the annual financial report.

A review of a half-year financial report consists of making enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

INDEPENDENT REVIEW REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF NSX LIMITED

Report on the Half Year Financial Report (Continued)

Independence

In conducting our review, we have complied with the independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001.

Conclusion

Based on our review, which is not an audit, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the half-year financial report of NSX Limited does not present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the consolidated entity as at 31 December 2012, and of its financial performance and its cash flows for the half-year ended on that date, in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, Accounting Standard AASB 134: Interim Financial Reporting and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

Inherent Uncertainty Regarding Continuation as a Going Concern

Without modifying our conclusion, we draw attention to Note 9 in the financial report, which indicates that the company incurred a net loss of $972,789 during the half year ended 31 December 2012. This condition, along with other matters set forth in Note 9, indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the company's ability to continue as a going concern and therefore, the company may be unable to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.
